S.Y. CASE STUDY VISIT

A site visit to Gaurish Resort, Mahabaleshwar, and RR Heritage Resort was organized for the second-year students of Yashoda College of Architecture, Satara, on 21st January 2025. The visit was conducted as part of the Architectural Design subject, with the objective of providing students a deeper understanding of resort architecture through practical exposure. The students were accompanied by faculty members Ar. Sharvari Gaikwad and Rushikesh Lokhande, who guided them throughout the visit. The case study offered a unique opportunity to observe and analyze the design principles, spatial organization, and operational strategies employed in resort projects. At Gaurish Resort, students explored the integration of natural elements with built spaces, focusing on how the design harmonizes with its scenic surroundings. Similarly, the visit to RR Heritage Resort provided insights into heritage-inspired architecture, blending traditional aesthetics with modern functionality. The visits concluded with interactive sessions, where students engaged in discussions and Q&A with resort staff and faculty, allowing them to deepen their understanding of the architectural and operational aspects. Such initiatives are integral to the curriculum at Yashoda College of Architecture, which emphasizes the fusion of theoretical knowledge and practical application.

VISIT TO ARCHITECTURE EXHIBITION

On January 10, 2025, first-year students from Yashoda College of Architecture (YCA), accompanied by faculty members including Ar. Sharvari Gaikwad, visited the Kolhapur College of Architecture for an inspiring exhibition titled "Nothing is Permanent." The group arrived at 2:00 PM and was greeted by an array of creative sheets, portfolios, models, and architectural paintings that showcased profound interpretations of the theme. The highlight of the visit was an interaction with NASA participants, who explained their innovative projects in detail. These sessions provided YCA students with valuable insights into the intricate processes of design conceptualization and presentation. The work on display reflected creativity, dedication, and the art of architectural communication.

The visit enriched the students' understanding of architecture's vast potential and encouraged critical thinking. It also instilled enthusiasm and determination to excel in their academic journey.
