One Day Interactive Session with Comrade Kiran Mane

June 17, 2022: Comrade Kiran Mane was speaking on the topic 'Contribution of Satara District in the Indian Freedom Struggle' at a one-day seminar on 'Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav' at Yashoda Institute, Satara, Faculty of MBA. The history of the freedom movement should be written in golden letters.

Speaking at the seminar, he said that the freedom movement in Satara district had started in earnest, in which revolutionaries like Krantisinha Nana Patil, GD Bapu Lad, Nagnath Anna Nayakwadi jumped into the fray. Krantisinha Nana Patil established a counter-government, sometimes underground and sometimes openly fought against the British rule. Satara district was first referred to as a British Empire-free district. Krantisinha Nana Patil was running the government. He was subsequently imprisoned several times during this period. But despite this, he continued the anti-government movement. He was influenced by the thoughts of Bhagat Singh, Rajguru and Sukhdev.

Sarfarooshi ki tamanna, ab hamare dil mein hai dekhna hai jor kitna bajuye katil mein hai ..! Krantisinha Nana Patil was adamant on these ideas. The core of Krantisinha's movement was the Morcha, which was based on Satyagraha. As the agitation and morcha was on the lines of civil disobedience, the patriotic youth had to be martyred in this morcha against British rule. Lala Lajpat Rai's thoughts were also strongly influenced by Pagada's thoughts. Thoughts of Mahatma Jyotiba Phule and Savitribai Jyotiba Phule, a couple of folk teachers, also had a strong influence on the social system. He said that the British would leave power but Nana Patil believed that Indian society would come out of this superstitious tradition and education and social reform would be the primary part of it.

Today, our country and society is certainly free from foreign captivity, but it cannot be said that it has yet been able to reach the heights of thought and conduct. He said that students pursuing vocational and technical education in the 21st century should also read only the history of the freedom movement and take inspiration from it and contribute to a stronger nation building.

Founder President Dashrath Sagare, Vice President Ajinkya Sagare gave encouragement for the seminar while Yashoda Institute Director, Joint Director, Principal and Registrar cooperated. Welcoming and introductory remarks were made by Prof. M. V. Landage. Dr. R. R. Chavan, Mrs. P.R. Patil and students were present on the occasion

Man is a physical, mental and spiritual being; yoga helps promote a balanced development of all the three. Other forms of physical exercises, like aerobics, assure only physical well-being. They have little to do with the development of the spiritual or astral body. The art of practicing yoga helps in controlling a Students mind, body and soul. It brings together physical and mental disciplines to achieve a peaceful body and mind; it helps manage stress and anxiety and keeps you relaxing. It also helps in increasing flexibility, muscle strength and body tone. It improves respiration, energy and vitality. Practicing yoga might seem like just stretching, but it can do much more for student's body from the way it feels, look and move. Dr. R. R. Chavan conducted the activity and inspired students to do yoga as a regular practice.
